PENTECOST SUNDAY

First Reading: Acts 2:1-11

During the Feast of Pentecost, tongues of fire came to rest on the heads of the disciples and they were filled with the Holy Spirit. Each disciple began speaking in a different language, and were understood by people from many different regions who were amazed at what they had witnessed.

Second Reading: 1 Corinthians 12:3b-7, 12-13

Paul explains that we are all members of one body. We have all been baptized in one Spirit and although numerous, we are one through Christ.

Gospel: John 20:19-23

John describes Jesus' first visit to the disciples after his resurrection. He gave them the Holy Spirit and the power to forgive other people or hold them responsible for their actions.

PENTECOST SUNDAY

“In contrast, the fruit of the Spirit is love, joy, peace, patience, kindness, generosity, faithfulness, gentleness, self-control. Against such there is no law. Now those who belong to Christ Jesus have crucified their flesh and its passions and desires. If we live in the Spirit, let us also follow the Spirit.”

The Pentecost event with wind, fire and noise are familiar signs of the coming of the Holy Spirit. There are other signs for us today to discover the presence of the Spirit in our lives in the church. They are the fruits of which Saint Paul spoke to the Galatians. In chapter 5 he enumerates nine signs, the fruits of the Spirit.

Take a moment to reread them and look into your hearts to see if they are present. Consider a spiritual friend and see if they reflect these gifts. This week, take one each day, and discover ways to see, seek, and manifest God’s gift and fruit in your life. ‘Let us follow the Spirit.’
